

To Keep Informed of All The Many Events, Bring T COMPLETE OFFICIAL PROGRAM

FUN FROLIC Features

PLAN TO ATTEND THE FROLIC ALL
3 DAYS!

THERE'LL BE A SWELL
TIME FOR ALL

BRING ALL
THE FAMILY

See HOBBY SHOW

Here Are The Events For

10 a.m. Civic Auditorium displays open—24 attractive exhibits by local merchants, industries, jobbers and manufacturers. Booths in dark blue velour arranged around sides and in center of auditorium. Free to all.

Thirty concessions booths on El Prado open—providing a fiesta carnival scene. All operated by local persons or organizations.

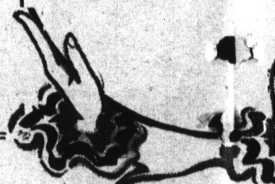

Arts, Crafts, Hobby and Needlework show opens at 1222 El Prado—no admission charge for unique displays by Torrance residents.

Finals in city championship horseshoe pitching contest begin at corner of Marcelina and Cravens avenues next to fire station. PRIZES: Pair of regulation Gordon Spin-On shoes for winner of singles and winner of doubles events.

Bicycle race for boys starts on El Prado in front of Auditorium. Three classifications: Class A for boys 15 to 19 years; Class B, 12 to 15 years; Class C, 10 to 12 years. Racers to pedal out Western avenue to 190th over to Crenshaw and then back to city with Boy Scouts and police as guards. George Figueredo in charge, assisted by Paul Harestad and others. PRIZES: Fastest time by any boy, a $10 two-speed gear shift assembly installed; first awards for winners in each division, $5 pair of tires; second award for each division, pair of handle-bars; third award in each division, Delta Torpedo bicycle light.

Don't Miss T FROLIC PA SATURDAY - 2

Harry M. Abramson in charge. boulevard and Cota avenue. Pr yard to Sartori, over Sartori to rillo to Carson and five-points, band at El Prado Park. AWAR be given winners of first and se division—Industrial, comic, bus and organizations and others t included in procession. Chair- man Abramson is receiving additional entries now.

Here Are The Events For Thursday, September 28

10 a.m. Civic Auditorium displays open to public without cost. Arts, Crafts, Hobby and Needlework show opens at 1222 El Prado—no admission charge. Judging of entries for award of merit certificates begins at 2 p.m. Judges will be Supervisors from the State Recreation Department in Los Angeles—Mesdames Alma DeBruler, Blanche Boggs, and Dolly Johnson, Major L. L. Garrigues and John F. Grayson. ALL CONCESSIONS OPEN AND OPERATING ON EL PRADO.

4<sup>30</sup> P.M. Three-day horseshoe pitching contest for city championship and prizes of regulation Gordon Spin-On shoes to winners of the singles and doubles events. Contest on court at corner of Marcelina and Cravens avenues next to fire station. Entrants register at this location.

7 p.m. Concert by the Torrance Municipal band at bandstand, corner of El Prado and Sartori avenue.

8 p.m. Dance revue and vaudeville show in Civic Auditorium arranged by Betty Dalton Thomas and Claire Thomas—FREE TO ALL. Program will include: Skater's Waltz by Ted Gobe-vitch and Rhoda Richardson; Hick Dance by Joan Bruck; Hula Dance by Marilyn Ackerman; Tap Dance by Claire Thomas; Baton Girls, Glenda Lee Burns, Beverly Voght, Joan Bruck, Barbara LaSalle, Margene Liggett and Mena Dean Knox; Tap Dance by John Burch; Soft-Shoe Dance by Mena Dean Knox; Tap Dance by Joan Bruck; and Accordion Solo by Betty Dalton Thomas.

8<sup>30</sup> P.M. Dancing to "sweet" (not jitterbug) music furnished by Don Briggs and his 14-piece orchestra at open-air dance floor, corner of El Prado and Cravens avenue. Five cents per dance per couple.

Forget the War! Join the Frolic Fun Brigade!

DANCES Every Night

FREE FASHION SHOW

